Message from the Secretary

Five Days with the President – or Chris Binnett and Bruce McKinney head to the IPMS Nationals

By Bruce McKinney

Almost a year in the planning, I presented the idea to Chris Binnett way back when to attend the IPMS Nationals in Loveland Colorado with me. They key to Chris saying yes was the free lodging I offered at my brother's house - who happens to live in Loveland Colorado. We planned to take models with us to enter - so flying was out of the question. The only other option was a fabulous 19 hour (straight thru) drive that we were both willing to do, taking driving and napping shifts along the way and a trunk full of road snacks.

So, off we left at 5 am from Beaverton. Bob Windus and fellow modeler Terry Schuler were also on the very same driving adventure. We met for breakfast at Mickey "D's" in Hood River. However, after breakfast, we did not see much of this traveling duo.

I can tell you - the scenery, once we left Oregon, was absolutely spectacular. Scrub brush and an occasional road kill was the order for most of the drive. Thankfully, we were equipped with a stack of CD's and a decent car stereo. I learned that Chris knows all the words to the early Jackson 5 hits and does a pretty good Michael Jackson impression. .

Arriving in Loveland at approximately 11:30 pm we hit the sack (in separate rooms - thanks to my brother having a large house) and were raring to go the next day to hit the Nats

The location was nice and well laid out - with the model contest room fairly sizable. The vendor area was divided into two separate large rooms. Check-in was easy and quick - but we heard the previous day on Wednesday the lines were long and slow. The Colorado group must have solved the issues by the time we got there. Seminar rooms were well marked and well attended.

“The Bomber” Tour – Aug 23

August 20 Meeting Notes

Graciously Compiled by your club secretary:

Bruce McKinney

Ok, let's start off by saying I had a little problem this month keeping track of the really swell meeting notes I feverously had written down. I won't go into a lot of details here on how I misplaced the notes, probably most of you would not care anyway, but I will blame it on my dog and just say he ate the notes. There! It's my dogs fault. NOT MINE. So, I will do my best to go off memory as to what was covered. If you read this, and I am sure you all anxiously await your OHMS newsletter to review the meeting minutes....., and say to yourself, "I don't remember that" - You are probably right. So...here goes....my feeble attempt at covering the meeting from memory.

Meeting called to order at 7:30 PM by president Chris Binnett.

We had a long distance guest at the meeting. Bruce Craig's niece traveled all the way from Pune India JUST to attend our meeting. Her name was Sangeeta Jonahs. Back in India Sangeeta is a graphic artist and designer working for an advertising agency. Bruce tells me she was also Miss Pune in 2010 - so, we basically had royalty among us and we did not even know. Sangeeta told Uncle Bruce she really enjoyed our meeting and especially enjoyed the planning and organization for our upcoming September show at Evergreen. Sangeeta is this month's winner for the "who traveled the greatest distance to attend tonights meeting" contest and is the recipient of the keys to the club's Chrysler LeBaron convertible. Congrats Sangeeta!! (I did not pull this from memory - thanks to e-mail, Bruce Craig filled in the necessary info)

Also present was Phil Richart. One of the ORIGINAL OHMS members who has not been to a meeting in years. I'm sure once Phil saw how well run our meetings are he will be right back in the swing of the monthly meeting thing. Welcome (back) Phil!

Chris discussed his (and mine) recent safari expedition to the far reaches of the East - otherwise known as the IPMS Nationals in beautiful Loveland Colorado. Several OHMS members were there and, if I got this right, we ALL took home an award or two. Of course, you may have noticed Chris's head was about twice normal size as he took home "BEST SCI FI SUBJECT" from the show. Pretty much all aspects of the show were discussed from the contest room, vendor rooms, raffle drawing as well as being a part of the IPMS judging staff. Congrats to Mr. President for winning THE BIG category award!

This led to a discussion about our very own OHMS Show coming up next month at Evergreen Aviation Museum.

Chris had his normal plea (really, begging) for show volunteers and especially judges. A reminder that those of you with humongous stashes of models that you will never build, (you know who you are) the show raffle table can always use your gracious donations. And, as always, they are MUCH MUCH appreciated!

Stewart Baily gave his normal Museum Musings report and I believe most planes he mentioned had been previously mentioned in an earlier newsletter - except this time they are actually on site at the museum. Stewart did mention that the museum will be getting a B-25 that currently is used for a pigeon poop study lab as it has 6000 lbs of pigeon poop inside. Sounded like a couple of weekends, a small Fuller Brush scrub brush and a bottle of 409 and the plane will be good as new.

Around 8:15 PM we began the monthly show and tell.

Meeting ended approx. 9:30 pm.

Chris and I both attended a seminar called "What Judges Look For" and found ourselves volunteering for OJT (on the job training) to be an official IPMS Nats judge. Chris and I both wanted to do figure judging, so, when the time came, we were paired up with an IPMS Nats judge that had 3 years of experience or more. The night of the judging seemed to possibly be a little un-organized, but things smoothed out and we hit the figures tables.

Saturday night, the final night of the convention, was the awards banquet and ceremony. Bob, Terry, Chris and I all sat together and we were pretty pleased to find out that the four of us had all won awards for our work that we entered. The BIG winner among us was Chris who took BEST SCI FI subject. No small feat, as the sci fi category was rather extensive. Chris's award winner is currently on display at Bridgetown - so take a look at this spectacular model and you will agree the award was well deserved.

I have attached some pictures from the convention. The BEST OF SHOW was a spectacular scratch built farm tractor. Luckily, I got a picture of it.

Next year's Nats will be on the east coast - so, it's doubtful Chris and I will be driving to this one.

Annual Show Auction Plea

By Bruce McKinney

Hello fellow club member,

I am sure you are aware, Saturday, 9/21/13 to be specific, is our regional model show out at Evergreen Aviation. For times and entry forms, see the club website.

I am appealing to you with my annual plea for kit donations for our auction. I personally believe our auction is one of the best of the Northwest model shows and seems to generate a lot of interest and excitement at the show as well as adding some additional funds for the club coffer. This is in thanks because of some really nice kits and accessories that have been donated in past years by our club members and show vendors.

So, like years past, let's look thru that stash of UNBUILT kits and pick out one or several that you know you will probably never will get around to building or just feel like being generous and donate it or them to the auction. If you have added items - such as PE parts, special decal sheets or resin add-ons that you added to the kit, please make note of those items as they definitely pique the interest and desires of the raffle ticket buyers

If you are planning to come to the show – (and why wouldn't you?), you can bring your kits with you for the auction table. If you can't make it to the show and still want to donate a kit or two, you can drop them off at Bridgetown Hobbies this next week and Tony Roberts will pick them up to bring them out to the show. How simple is that?

Again, a BIG thanks in advance for your donation(s). The success of the auction is totally based on your generosity and is much, much appreciated! Don't forget, this year we will again be in the SPACE Museum wing. And, this year we are also doing a separate raffle for a BRAND NEW Zoukei Mura 1/32 He-219

Hope to see you at the show....

Your auctioneer,

Bruce McKinney

Show Vendor Info:
"The Micro Group"

"In order to more fully inform our 2013 Fall Show attendees of the vendors and their products, Steve Cozad and Craig Rosner, long time participants in our show, requested that information about their products be presented in the monthly newsletter prior to the show.

Steve Cozad of "Moonlight Woodworks" provides hand-made wood bases of all sizes and shapes to those requiring an attractive means to present and display their works. The wood bases with varnished or non-varnished finishes, are also available with groundscapes of grass, foliage or concrete.

Craig Rosner of "The Micro Group" provides hand-made wood propellers for aircraft of World War 1. Providing propellers for kits such as Roden, Revell and Wingnut Wings, The Micro Group's products can be seen at ww1aircraftmodels.com where they are reviewed on the front page of that site."

We thank you and your associates for the kind assistance.
